Our Chamber member businesses and organizations provide services and products to meet every need. Chamber member businesses are owned and operated by friends and neighbors you know and trust. The Town Planner is one of those fine Chamber members offering a valued service to our community.

The Union County Chamber of Commerce works daily to lead, serve, and promote our businesses and community. We are proud of our community and gladly call Union County home. Please do business with members of YOUR Union County Chamber of Commerce. You can locate a Chamber member business or organization by checking the online membership directory on our website UnionCountyCoC.com. You'll find a member business for your every need.

Thank you for shopping Union County,

Pat Kahle
President Union County Chamber of Commerce

As always, I am honored to provide this welcome to you and your family on behalf of the Monroe City Council. The City of Monroe continues to experience some wonderful transformations and is looking forward to a bright future. We are growing our residential, commercial, and industrial tax bases while being mindful of preserving our rural heritage. Our staff is committed to excellent customer service; and we are continually enhancing the quality of life of our residents through our numerous events, superior public safety, and exceptional parks and recreation facilities.

The Town Planner Calendar is an indispensable asset for Monroe residents as it provides information about city activities and events as well as important contact information for various government agencies. The calendar also offers valuable coupons from local businesses that not only help the local economy but also make this calendar possible.

I am truly humbled and proud to serve as your mayor and to play a role in the City of Monroe's growth, development, and prosperity. I wish you and your family a joyous and healthy 2018.

With Sincere Appreciation,

Bobby Kilgore, Mayor
City of Monroe
